

Report to South Downs National Park Authority
Date 9 December 2025
By Head of Governance and Monitoring Officer
Title of Report Review of the Member Code of Conduct
Decision

Recommendation: That the Authority:

- 1. Note that a focussed review of the Authority’s Member Code of Conduct was undertaken in May 2023 as summarised in paragraph 1.2.
 - 2. Note the outcome of the current review of the Authority’s Member Code of Conduct as detailed in section 3 of this report.
 - 3. Approve the revised Member Code of Conduct at Appendix 1.

I. Introduction

- I.1 The South Downs National Park Authority has a statutory responsibility, pursuant to section 27(1) and (2) of the Localism Act 2011, to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by its Members and must adopt a code dealing with the conduct that is expected of Members and Co-opted Members when they are acting in that capacity.
- I.2 In May 2023 a focussed review of the Code was undertaken by the Monitoring Officer which:
 - Considered the Committee on Standards in Public Life (“CoSPL”) report Local Government Ethical Standards – A review by the Committee on Standards in Public Life which contained extensive recommendations and best practice for local authorities, including national park authorities.
 - Had regard to both the Code of Conduct for Board Members of Public Bodies (November 2019) published by the Cabinet Office (“the Cabinet Office Code”) which applies directly to those SDNPA Members who are appointed by the Secretary of State, including Parish nominated Members, and the LGA’s Model Councillor Code of Conduct (“the Model Code”).
- I.3 This review led to the Authority approving a revised Code in July 2023. As the Authority reviews the Code at least every two years to ensure it is up to date and consistent with current legislation and best practice, a review has been undertaken. This report sets the proposed changes to the Code.
- I.4 This review of the Member Code of Conduct and the proposed changes were considered by the Appointment, Management and Standards (AMS) Committee in line with its terms of reference. At its meeting on 10 November 2025 the AMS Committee recommended that the National Park Authority approve the revised Member Code of Conduct at Appendix 1.

1.5 Following consideration by the AMS Committee four corrections have been identified and made to the Code of Conduct:

- Paragraph 4.1 has been corrected to read “... as set out in paragraph 4.6 ...”
- Paragraph 4.2 has had the words “or a person connected with the Member” added to ensure it is clear that ‘sensitive interests’ can be those of a Member or of someone connected with a Member.
- The word “disclosable” added to the beginning of paragraph 4.5 and to the title of Table I.
- Paragraph 4.10 has been corrected to refer to “paragraphs 4.1-4.6.”

2. Policy Context

2.1 The Code is a key part of the Authority’s ethical governance framework, and sets the standards expected from Members in their undertaking of National Park Authority duties. It includes provision for the registration and disclosure of pecuniary and other interests, both where this is prescribed by law and where it is considered appropriate for the good governance of the Authority.

3. Issues for consideration

3.1 This review of the Code has sought to reflect best practice from other codes of conduct whilst retaining the integrity of the Code following the review in 2023. The substantive changes recommended to the AMS Committee are set out in the table below and as tracked changes in the revised Code at Appendix I of this report. There are also formatting changes and other minor changes which are not included in the table of substantive changes below, but which are reflected in the tracked changes in Appendix I to this report.

Para 3.16	Addition of “You must comply with this Code of Conduct in your use of social media as a Member of the Authority.”	To reinforce the importance of taking care in the use of social media.

The paragraph already includes the requirement to disclose pecuniary interests.
Para 4.2	The inclusion of information on ‘sensitive interests’ in the paragraph rather than as a footnote to the paragraph.	To ensure clarity and ease of understanding on the matter.
Para 4.3	Addition of “You must also not seek to improperly influence a decision on that matter.”	To ensure Members understand they should not seek to influence a decision on a matter they have a pecuniary interest in.
Para 4.5, 4.6 and Table I	Inclusion of specific information on pecuniary interests and set out in the Localism Act 2011.	Relocated to be read along with the other information on pecuniary interests to ensure clarity and ease of understanding on the matter.

Para 4.11	Reworded to support a Member’s consideration of the nature of their interests.	To ensure clarity and ease of understanding on the matter.

4. Options & cost implications

4.1 As the Authority is required to adopt a code, the Authority can consider whether it agrees with the changes recommended to the Code by the AMS Committee and whether it wishes to propose any further changes before approving the revised Code.

4.2 There are no additional costs directly associated with the proposals.

5. Next steps

5.1 If approved the revised Member Code of Conduct will be published on the Authority’s website.

6. Other implications

Implication	Yes*/No
Will further decisions be required by another committee/full authority?	No.
Does the proposal raise any Resource implications?	None directly arising from this report.
How does the proposal represent Value for Money?	The Member Code of Conduct is a key part of the organisation's governance framework, the effective operation of which contributes to the effective running of the organisation
Which PMP Outcomes/ Corporate plan objectives does this deliver against	Up to date governance procedures and robust arrangements to ensure high standards of conduct in decision making indirectly support the delivery of all PMP and Corporate Plan objectives.
Links to other projects or partner organisations	The Code of Conduct for Board Members of Public Bodies published by the Cabinet Office (June 2019) applies directly to those SDNPA Members who are appointed by the Secretary of State, including Parish nominated Members. Where appropriate, the provisions of the Cabinet Office Code are incorporated into the Authority's Member Code of Conduct to ensure consistency in the standards of conduct expected from all Members.

Are there any Social Value implications arising from the proposal?	Not applicable.
Have you taken regard of the South Downs National Park Authority's equality duty as contained within the Equality Act 2010?	Yes. There are no equalities implications arising from the review of the Member Code of Conduct. The Code applies equally to all Members (including Co-opted Members) and the associated processes connected to the Code are accessible to all.
Are there any Human Rights implications arising from the proposal?	The NPA Code applies to all Members (including Co-opted Members) when acting in their role as a member of the Authority. The Code does not apply to a Member in their private life and it is not considered that the Code interferes with any person's human rights.
Are there any Crime & Disorder implications arising from the proposal?	The NPA Code requires Members to uphold the law when acting in their role as a member of the Authority.
Are there any Health & Safety implications arising from the proposal?	The Code requires Members to promote an open, transparent and safe working environment within the Authority where individuals feel able to speak up and raise concerns. It also includes prohibitions on bullying, harassment, sexual harassment and intimidatory conduct.

Implication	Yes*/No
	The NPA Code requires Members to register personal interests but, where disclosure of the details of an interest could lead to the Member or a person connected with them being subject to violence or intimidation, there is statutory provision which enables the Member and the Monitoring Officer to determine that the interest is sensitive and to withhold details of the interest from any published version of the Register of Interests.
Are there any Data Protection implications?	The Code requires the registration of Members' personal interests which are published. This is done in accordance with the Localism Act 2011.

7. Risks Associated with the Proposed Decision

- 7.1 Failure to have a robust and up to date Code of Conduct increases the risk of reputational harm for both the Authority and its Members. This report seeks to mitigate this risk.

You are required, within 28 days to notify the Chief Executive or his delegate in writing of any offer and/or receipt of any gifts or hospitality. Where the offer of a gift or hospitality is accepted this will be recorded on the Authority's appropriate register. You are responsible for your decisions on the acceptance of gifts or hospitality and for ensuring that any gifts or hospitality accepted can stand up to public scrutiny and do not bring your office or the Authority into disrepute, for example, where a gift or hospitality might reasonably appear to compromise your personal judgement or integrity or place you under an improper obligation.

2.6.—Without prejudice to the requirements set out above, you must, in addition, notify the Authority's Monitoring Officer of any personal interest you consider it appropriate to be entered on the Register of Interests.

Personal and other interests

2.8.4.9. Where you have a personal interest in an item of business being considered at a meeting of the Authority, committee or sub-committee, you must disclose the personal interest. The disclosure shall be made at the commencement of the meeting or when the interest becomes apparent and shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. You have a personal interest in any business of the Authority where a decision in relation to it might reasonably be regarded as affecting the well-being or financial position of yourself, a member of your family or person with whom you have a close association, to a greater extent than the majority of inhabitants of the South Downs National Park.

4.10. Disclosure of a personal interest does not necessarily affect your ability to participate in discussion or vote on the relevant item. This will depend upon your individual circumstances. If the personal interest amounts to a disclosable pecuniary interest, the provisions in paragraphs 4.1-4.6 apply. If you have a financial interest (not amounting to a disclosable pecuniary interest), you should not participate in the business being considered, you should leave the room after exercising any right to speak in accordance with the Authority's public speaking procedures, which a member of the public would have (should you wish to do so).

2.9.4.11. In respect of all other personal interests, you will need to consider whether the nature of the interest is such that it may, or may be perceived to, conflict with your public duties – would a member of the public reasonably consider that the interest might influence your judgement of the public interest (with regard to the latter you should ask yourself whether a member of the public, acting reasonably, would consider that the interest might influence your judgement of the public interest). If you consider, having taken advice in appropriate circumstances, that you should not participate in the business being considered, you should leave the room after exercising any right to speak in accordance with the Authority's public speaking procedures, which a member of the public would have (should you wish to do so).

2.10.4.12. A public service interest is a type of personal interest involving membership of any of the following:

- any political party, trade union or other body one of whose principal purposes is to influence public opinion or policy.

2.11.4.13. As with other personal interests, if you have a public service interest in an item of business being considered at a meeting of the Authority, committee or sub-committee, you must disclose the public service interest. The disclosure shall be made at the commencement of the meeting, or when the interest becomes apparent, and shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. Disclosure of a public service interest does not normally affect your ability to participate in discussion or vote on the relevant item, but this will depend on the individual circumstances and advice should be sought where the nature of the interest is such that it could amount to a disclosable pecuniary interest or a financial interest of yours or may, or may be perceived to, conflict with your public duties.
