

Reviewing our Partnership Management Plan

Andrew Lee: Director of Countryside Policy & Management

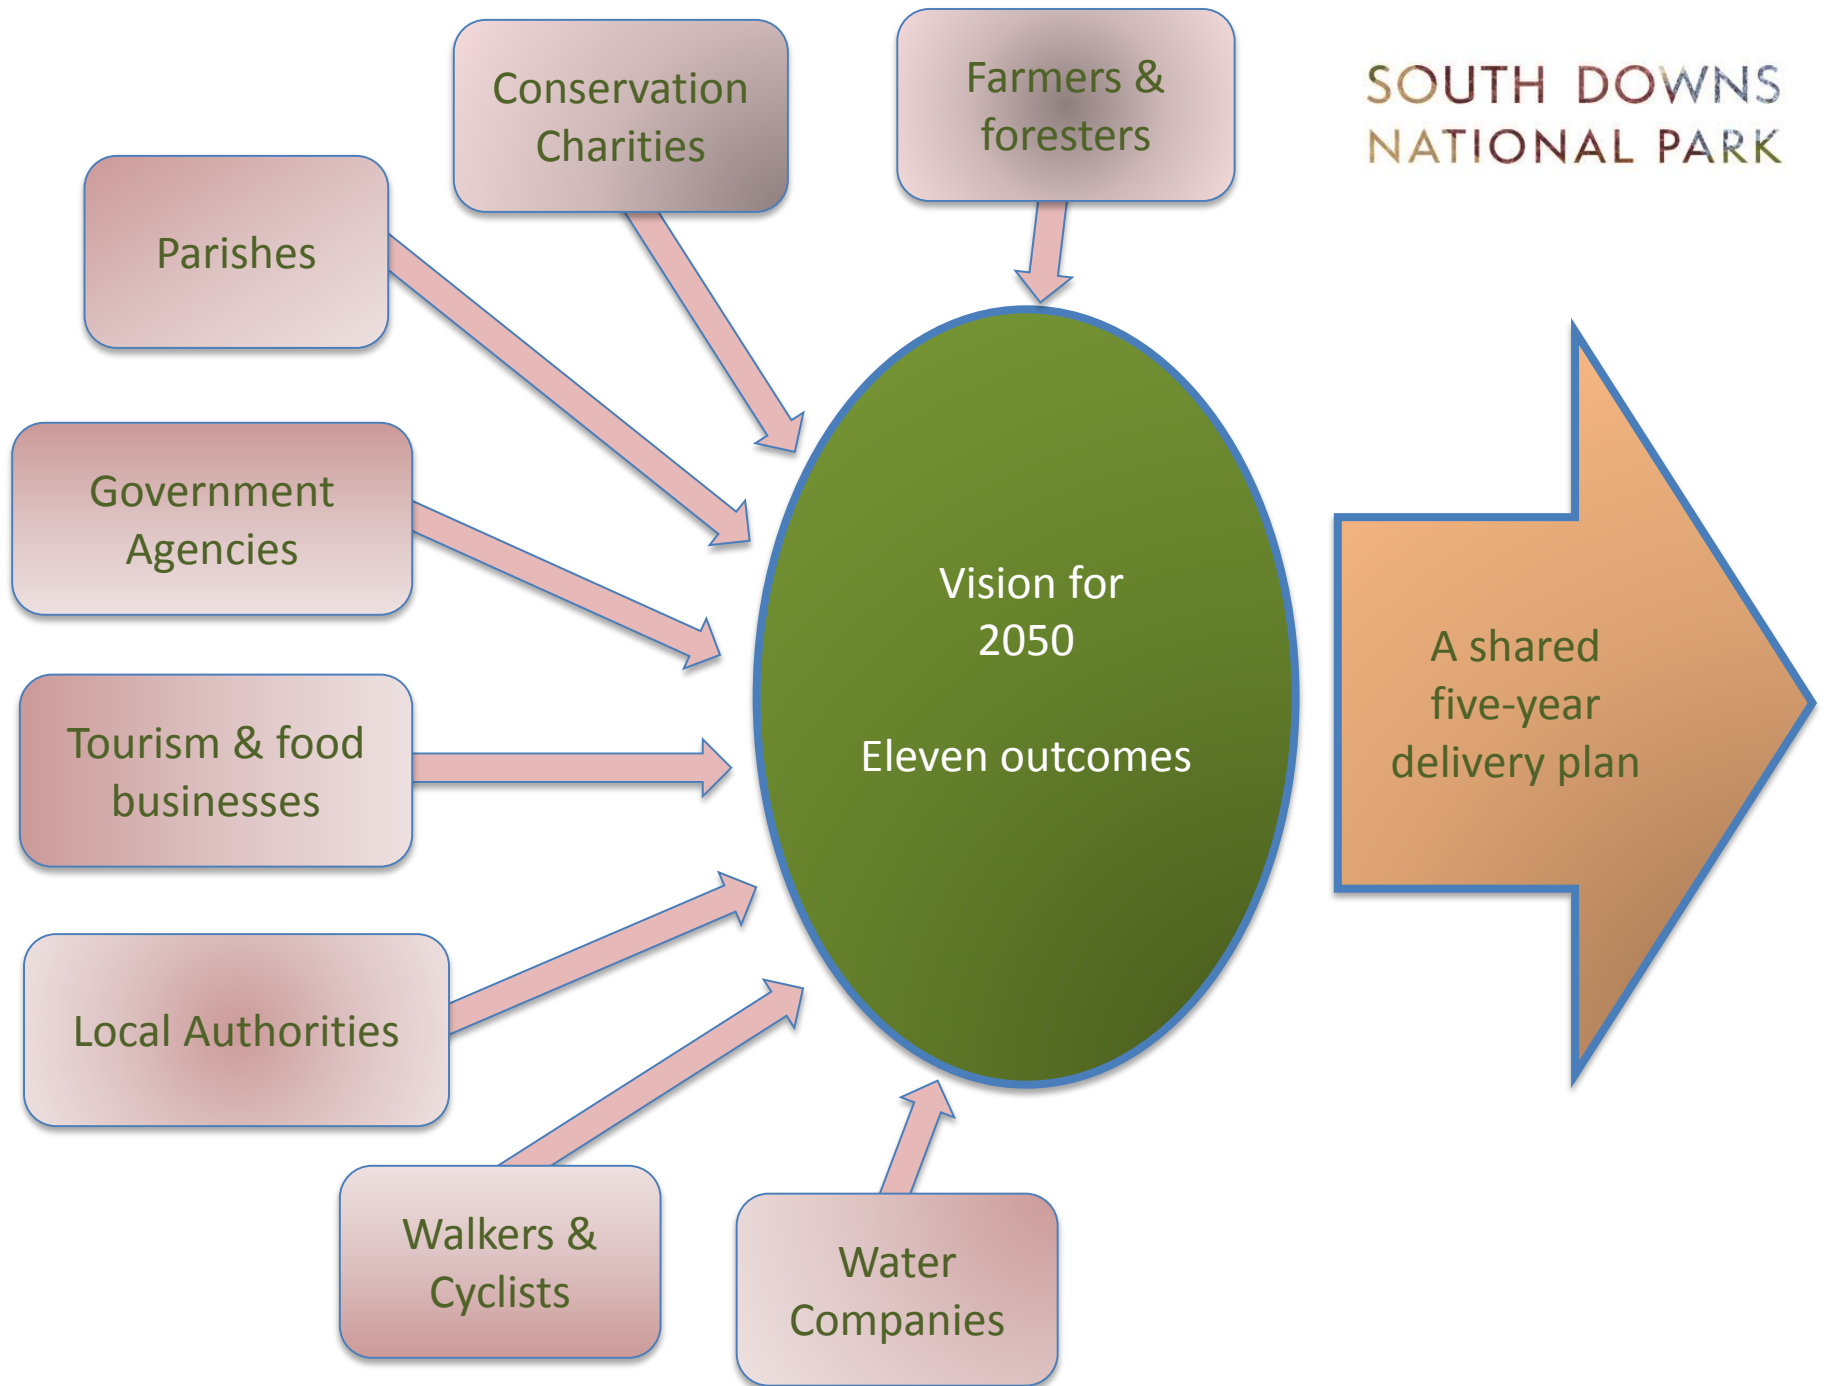

- How we made the plan;
- Why it is being reviewed;
- What has been achieved;
- How you can shape the next five years

- How we made the plan;
- Why it is being reviewed;
- What has been achieved;
- What you can do

SOUTH DOWNS NATIONAL PARK

Partnership Management Plan

Shaping the future of your South Downs National Park

2014–2019

- How we made the plan;
- Why it is being reviewed now;
- What has been achieved;
- How you can shape the next five years

- Defra required, six years since start;
- To get all partners doing more;
- To set clear priorities for fundraising ££££;
- To build on the Local Plan (see previous);
- To bring alive for residents and visitors

- How we made the plan;
- Why it is being reviewed;
- What has been achieved;
- How you can shape the next five years

Better, bigger, joined up habitats

SOUTH DOWNS
NATIONAL PARK

Telling the stories of our past

Mr Every's motor, 1908

Improving access

SOUTH DOWNS
NATIONAL PARK

South Downs
National Park

Walks near Midhurst
and Duncton Mill

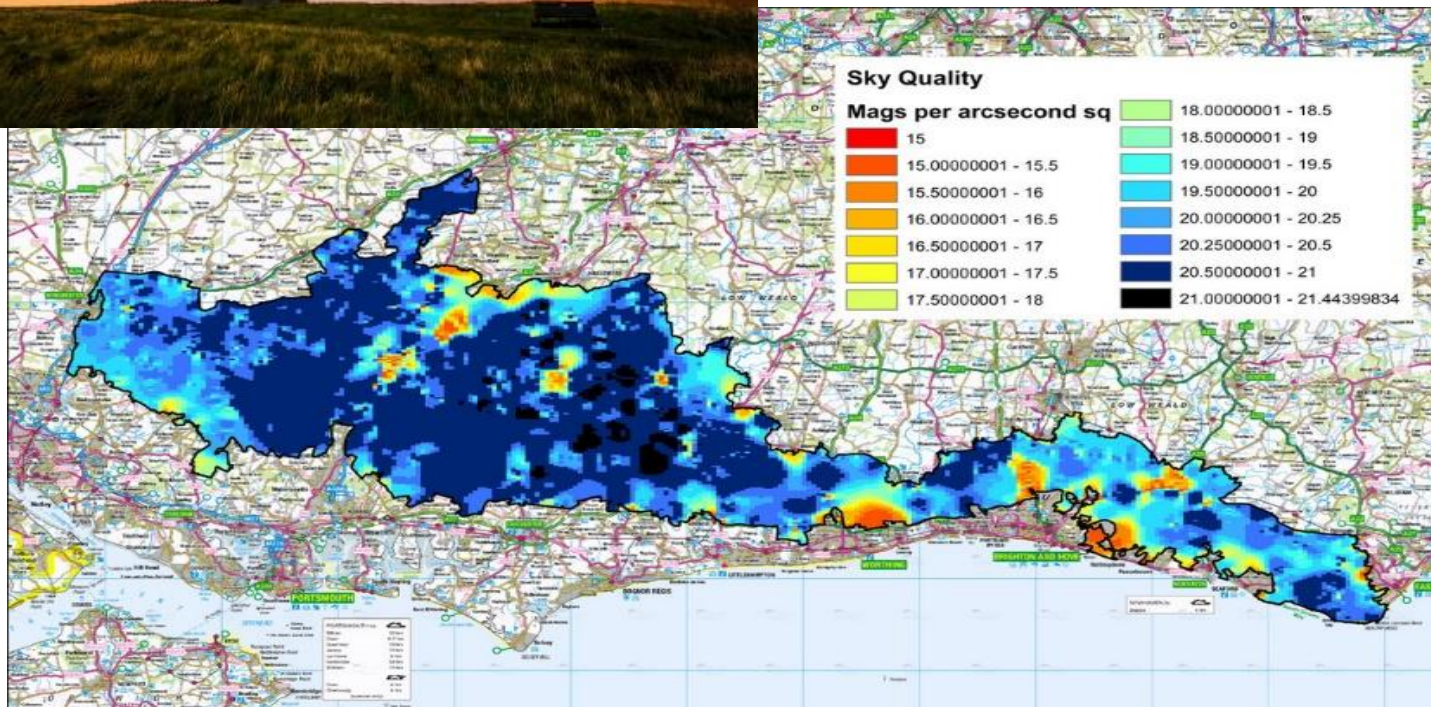

© P. Mason - Hairy Hobbit

Leave your car at home, take the bus

Celebrating dark skies

SOUTH DOWNS
NATIONAL PARK

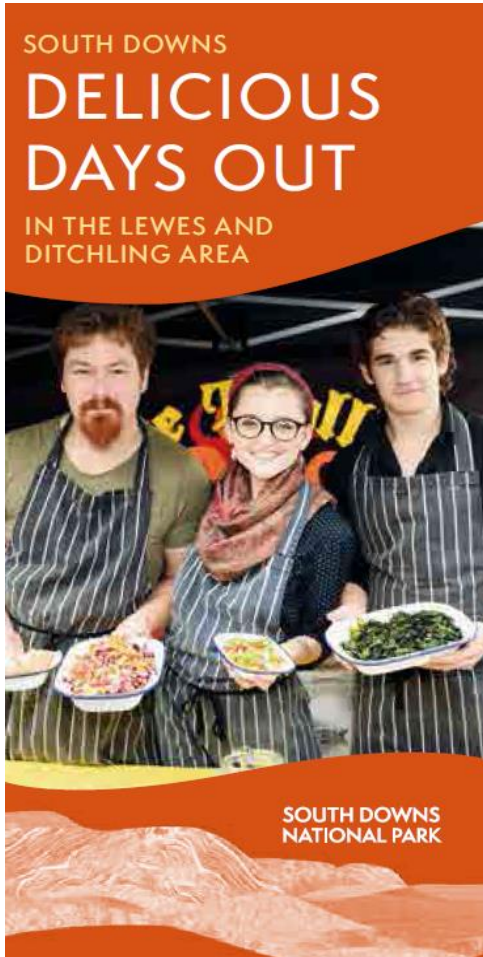

Breathing life into our rivers

Promoting local food & drink

SOUTH DOWNS
NATIONAL PARK

- How we made the plan;
- Why it is being reviewed;
- What has been achieved;
- How you can shape the next five years

Now its your turn....

SOUTH DOWNS
NATIONAL PARK

To receive our e-newsletter go to <https://www.southdowns.gov.uk/>
On the home page, click on NEWSLETTER SIGNUP and enter details.

