

WEST MEON

West Meon CA resident	1a	The blue stars on the Analysis Map are not explained.	Acknowledged. They denoted Tree Preservation Orders – a separate map is now provided.
	1b	The two greens used on the Analysis Map are almost indistinguishable.	Acknowledged – annotation was faulty and a grey hatching has now been introduced for clarity.
	1c	The blues used on the Analysis Map are hard to distinguish.	Acknowledged – a mapping programme with wider colour range has been introduced.
West Meon Parish Council	2a	Page 6. Court Farm still exists as a farm.	Noted. But the traditional farmstead, in the CA, has been converted for some time.
	2b	3.16. List of amenities omit the café.	Acknowledged. Café now added.
	2c	Page 18, 5.3. Agree reduction of vegetation at The Cross, but a need to be sensitive to screening residents from traffic impact.	Noted.
	2d	5.6. The reinstatement of Churchyard railings would be an enhancement. Are grants available?	No, but thought might be given to using CIL monies for this.
	2e	5.7. The Red Lion is being refurbished.	Now acknowledged at relevant points in the text and captions.
	2f	Page 19, 5.11. Permission given to replace the garage block with oak-framed garages under 16/0209/HOUS.	Acknowledged. Reference now added and photo caption revised.
	2g	5.12. The security fencing is required to prevent balls going into the road.	Noted. But text continues to propose replacement with a better solution.
	2h	5.13. The provision of parking is required as West Meon is so short of spaces.	Noted. But permanent parking is unsightly and no change to text is proposed.
	2i	Page 22, Fig 12. The Court House is in Court Lane, not Church Path.	Corrected.
	2j	Page 48, 6.10. Agree to addition of Queen Victoria Institute to any Local List.	Noted.
	2k	6.15. The Red Lion is now Lion House.	Noted. Now acknowledged in caption.
	2m	Page 50, 6.25. Existing traffic calming measures were agreed with HCC on the advice of Ben Hamilton Baillie.	Noted, but current situation may still be worthy of further consideration.