Prizes and judging

Short-listing will take place by Friday 29 November 2019.

The winning image will be chosen from the shortlist by the judges and will be officially announced in January 2020 in the South Downs National Park newsletter, website and through our social media channels.

SDNPA may change the advertised panel of judges in the event of circumstances outside of its control.

The judges' decision is final and no discussion or correspondence will be entered into in respect of their decision.

The person whose image is chosen as our winner will receive £250, a second place prize of £150 and third place prize of £50 will also be awarded.

This year we will also be choosing the best wildlife photo from the entries – the person whose image is chosen for this will receive £100. There are no other prizes for this sub-category.

The prizes are non-transferable.

Once the winner has been notified, he/she will need to provide full contact details including name, age, address, email address and photographic proof of identity in order to claim the prize.

By entering the Competition you release SDNPA from and against all claims and damages arising from or in connection with your participation in the Competition. You agree to comply with these Rules of Entry.

Details relating to any prizes will be sent to the winner within 30 days of the winner being announced.
