Dear Mr Murray-Cox,

Thank you for your Freedom of Information request, submitted by Nina Lloyd on the 2nd of March with your address given as our contact, which we have considered under the Environmental Information Regulations. For reference, your request is laid out below in bold:

SDNP/21/04848/FUL

Instruction to and confirmation of instruction to Bruton Knowles as viability consultants. All correspondence (including emails, minutes of telephone calls, virtual communications, meeting notes and agenda's) between the Council's Planning Officer Richard Ferguson and Bruton Knowles in relation to viability for the above planning application.

The response of the South Downs National Park Authority is as follows:

Further to your request, I have prepared an information pack containing the requested information which you can find at the following WeTransfer link: <https://we.tl/t-InGCjKVQPj>

Please note that the link will expire in 7 days, at which point the document will no longer be available for download; if you have not been able to download it in this time and require a fresh link please get in touch and I will provide one.

Please be aware the information in this pack has been redacted on the basis of Regulation 13 of the Environmental Information Regulations – That is, information which constitutes Personal Data under the Data Protection Act 2018, the release of which would contravene any of the principles laid out in said act.

In addition, some information has been redacted where the information does not relate to the request received but is included in documents that are relevant to the request.

For the purpose of constructing an effective timeline, the final page of the information pack contains hand-written notes; as these do not include a date as the various emails do, the Officer who took the notes has been able to confirm that they were taken during a phone call on Wednesday the 13th of July.

If you are unhappy with the way in which the Authority has handled your request, you can ask the Authority to review it by sending an email to the following address: Info@southdowns.gov.uk

From there it will be passed to our independent legal team, who will make their own review and return a response directly to you.

Requests for review must be submitted in writing and must be made no later than 40 working days from the date of our response to you.

If our review does not resolve the issue to your complete satisfaction, you have the right to apply to the Information Commissioner for a decision. You can register a complaint at the "Make a complaint" section of the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) website, at the following link: ICO Complaints webpage. The ICO can be contacted directly at the following link: ICO Contact webpage.

The ICO also have a phone line that can be used to contact them. The number is 0303 123 1113

Kind regards,
Paul
